

The Gary B. Multanen/CM Magazine Applied Research Student Scholarship Eligibility & Entry Requirements

CM MAGAZINE SCHOLARSHIP:

One winning candidate will receive a $1,000 award, have his or her winning research published in CM Magazine, and receive one all-expense paid trip to ACMA's 2009 COMPOSITES & POLYCON trade show in Tampa, Florida.

QUALIFICATIONS:

1. To be eligible, a student must be registered full-time at an accredited college or university, and must be in good academic standing. Undergraduate and graduate students are encouraged to apply.
2. Applicants must be pursuing a degree in engineering, research, or other composites-based curriculum. Art students working with composite materials in restoration or sculpture also are encouraged to apply.
3. All research submissions must be composite-related, part of a specific class or curriculum, and imply practical/commercial or aesthetic applications.
4. All applicants must reside in the United States of America.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE:

1. Application forms for the scholarship are available at www.cmmagazine.org or by request at 703-525-0511, cmmag@acmanet.org, or CM Magazine Scholarship; 1010 N. Glebe Rd., Suite 450; Arlington, VA 22201.
2. The deadline for submissions is Thursday, August 7, 2008.
3. Candidates must also submit the following with their applications:
 - Composites-related research in the form of a report or paper (no less than 1,500 words), which focuses on some unique, creative, and significant aspect of research that the student is authoring, co-authoring or heavily participating in. The report must not be overly commercial in promoting a particular product or proprietary process, but should defer, as much as possible when these references occur, to generic terms. The submission also must imply practical aesthetic applications.
 - A reference from the professor related to or overseeing research.
 - A college transcript (photocopies are acceptable).
4. Mail all of the above to: CM Magazine Scholarship; 1010 N. Glebe Rd., Suite 450; Arlington, VA 22201.
